

Childminding Table of Risk

Low risk	Medium risk	High risk
Parents are working from home	Parents work in a small setting with few other people where it is possible to practice social distancing of 2m throughout the day	Parents works in large or busy setting with high numbers or high traffic of people including members of the public not just work colleagues
Child or child's siblings do not attend school or another childcare setting	Child or child's siblings do not attend school or another childcare setting	Child or child's siblings are attending school or another childcare setting
No symptoms of illness	No symptoms of illness	Child or a child's family member are showing symptoms of illness or are 'under the weather' in some way
Family are self isolating apart from childcare	Family are self isolating apart from work and childcare	Child's family members are using public transport, seeing other friends and family members or making non essential journeys to public places